

Global strategist Michael Winston was hailed by Leadership Excellence journal as one of the “100 Most Influential Thinkers on Leadership in the World” numerous times over the years.

As a keynote speaker he has addressed more than 400 companies and lectured at Harvard, Stanford, University of California, Berkeley, INSEAD (France), Management Centre Europe (Belgium), University of Warwick (Great Britain), and served as Distinguished Adjunct Professor at Stichting de Baak (The Netherlands) for 16 consecutive years.

Dr. Winston delivers high-energy, high-content, high-impact presentations that inform, energize and empower his audience. Michael had a corporate career of distinction in executive positions for over three decades in five Fortune 100 companies across three industries. Serving in executive positions for Motorola, Merrill Lynch, McDonnell Douglas, Lockheed and Countrywide, Michael held the senior-most position in the organization in his discipline. As global head of leadership and organization strategy he worked closely with C-Suite Officers to develop business models, craft strategies and structure, create cultures and develop leaders. He provided strategic guidance to the CEO, Board of Directors and executive team on business planning, execution and human capital issues in all regions across the globe. His leadership strategies have been embraced and utilized by such esteemed institutions as the University of Illinois Business School and its executive programs.

Winston is the author of the recently published book World-Class Performance. His articles have been featured in Business Week, Huffington Post, Leader to Leader, Leadership Excellence, Business Forum, Executive Excellence and a host...

Michael Winston

Speech Topics

- Peak Performance
- Leadership
- Keynote
- Innovation
- Creativity
- Change

Testimonials

"Sheds new and needed light on transformational change. This is a big, intelligent work in a small, digestible package. Bravo!"

- David Allen, Best-selling Author of Getting Things Done.

"Michael's presentation on Managing in the Global Economy was excellent. It was the highlight of the program."

- Consumer Goods Company.