

Jim and Martha Dugan's boy- Dave- was born to be a comedian. A one-of-a-kind delivery accompanied by impeccable timing and imaginative comedy angles has led DAVE DUGAN down the path to NATIONAL TV APPEARANCES and to RAVE REVIEWS from corporate event planners.

"Dave made me look good" is a common testimonial heard from planners who have trusted this highly-sought after comedian to engage their audiences, "and he is so easy to work with!"

An award-winning writer, Dave takes the time to customize humor for each performance to best fit each audience, group or corporation, sometimes kicking off the performance as AN IMPOSTOR. Being introduced as a so-called expert or a new hire in an upper management position with whacked out ideas or even portraying a desperate, pathetic competitor are just a few examples of Dave's successful approaches as an impostor. You help create the fake, yet believable bio and he'll play the role. The fun is watching the audience reactions as they try to "figure this guy out." As one client stated, "It was as if you were a co-worker here for 20 years...months later, you are still the talk around the company!" And about those TV appearances? Back when he shaved every two weeks whether he needed it or not, a young Dave headed to Los Angeles from Indiana and within a few months got his first break from the legendary DICK CLARK. Clark included the new Californian on one of his many nighttime music-driven shows on ABC. That led to multiple appearances on the then ratings-leading ARSENIO HALL SHOW and Dave instantly became a favorite at the World Famous ...

Testimonials

“Dave was very, very entertaining as our keynote speaker. But first, we had him improvise as an imposter and he did an amazing job! Using our industry language made it genuine, real and over the top hilarious! I received accolades that it was the best sales conference that we've ever had and I believe Dave was a big part of that. We look forward to having Dave return to a future event!”

- Anthem Blue Cross & Blue Shield.

“Dave Dugan's unique style with clean material, impeccable timing and imaginative angles win points with the audience!”
