

Dr. Margie Warrell is a global authority on courage and unlocking the potential that fear holds dormant - in individuals and organizations. A 5x bestselling author, Senior Partner at Korn Ferry, and keynote speaker, Marge combines her diverse international business experience, doctoral research, and contagious passion to deliver transformative programs that ignite purpose and accelerate growth. Since growing up in rural Australia, Margie has walked her 'live brave' talk countless times, living in multiple countries around the world from PNG to Singapore. Now based in Washington D.C., Margie is a Women's Economic Forum honoree, Forbes columnist, media commentator (CNN, WSJ, Today Show) and sits on the Forbes School of Business and Technology advisory board. Her clients include Salesforce, Google, Amazon, NASA, Dell, Oracle, and United Nations Foundation.

An avid hiker, amateur barista, and advocate for women in leadership, Margie recently summited Mt Kilimanjaro with her husband and four children. Her insights on embracing uncertainty and de-risking failure have never been more relevant or required.

Testimonials

“Margie is a pro’s pro! She brought immense value on leading courageously to our association executives and her stories resonated deeply. She is changing mindsets and cultures daily.”

- National Association of REALTORS® Atlanta, February 2022.

“Margie’s professionalism and energy, on stage and off, created ‘ah-ha!’ moments that have made better leaders of us all.”

- VP HR, Oracle APAC .

Margie Warrell

Speech Topics

- Women in Business
- Personal Growth
- Peak Performance
- Overcoming Adversity
- Leadership
- Corporate Culture

