

Time magazine called him The New Mr. Natural. My Generation magazine dubbed him one of the top-four health gurus in the United States. For over three decades, Gary Null has been one of the foremost advocates of alternative medicine and natural healing.

An award-winning journalist and New York Times best-selling author, Dr. Null has over 70 books on nutrition, self-empowerment and public health issues, including his most recent, Power Aging. His syndicated public radio show, "Natural Living with Gary Null", earned eight Silver Microphone Awards and was the longest-running, continuously aired health program in America (27 years).

The Gary Null Show is not a chit-chat show but, rather, an on-air health forum featuring knowledgeable guests and well-researched scientific information that is presented objectively and in laypersons terms. The programs combination of provocative interviews, controversial commentary, and listener call-ins motivate listeners to change their lives for the better.

Gary Null holds a Ph.D. in human nutrition and public health science. He has been a consistent voice on how to live a longer, more vital life through work that embraces the body, mind and spirit. Gary believes that much of what our society accepts as inevitable markers of aging are actually manifestations of a preventable disease process. Gary philosophy has influenced countless Americans to achieve a healthier, more fulfilling lifestyle.

As the managing editor and lead investigator for the Caveat Emptor features of ABC Radio Network and WABC radio, Gary Null captured the attention of hundreds of thousands of people who saw that he was unafraid to address controversial issues involving public health and alternative health pra...
