

Dr. Lamont Colucci has experience as a diplomat with the U.S. Dept. of State and is today an Associate Professor and Chairman of Politics and Government at Ripon College. His primary area of expertise is United States national security and United States foreign policy.

At Ripon, he is the coordinator for the National Security Studies program and teaches courses on national security, foreign policy, intelligence, terrorism, and international relations. He has published a book entitled Crusading Realism: The Bush Doctrine and American Core Values After 9/11, and was contributing author of another book entitled The Day That Changed Everything: Looking at the Impact of 9/11 at the End of the Decade. In 2012 he finished a two volume series entitled - The National Security Doctrines of the American Presidency: How they Shape our Present and Future. In 2012, he became the Fulbright Scholar in Residence at the Diplomatic Academy in Vienna, Austria.

He has undergraduate and graduate degrees from the University of Wisconsin-Madison and a doctorate in politics from the University of London, England. In 2007 he was the recipient of Ripon's Severy Excellence in Teaching award and in 2010 the Underkofler Outstanding Teaching Award. In 2015 he received the national Significant Sig award of the Sigma Chi Fraternity. Dr. Colucci is also an occasional columnist for the Washington Times, National Review, and Defense News. He is a weekly columnist for U.S. News and World Report, Foreign Policy and National Security, - Insights, perspectives, and commentary on foreign affairs. He is also Senior Fellow in National Security Affairs for the American Foreign Policy Council and is Advisor in Na...

Lamont Colucci

Speech Topics

- ☐ Politics & Current Events
- ☐ Media
- ☐ Leadership
- ☐ Law
- ☐ International Speakers
- ☐ Globalization

Testimonials

Colucci's well-crafted description and critique of the national security doctrines of 16 American Presidents is a valuable resource for serious scholars as well as those creating national security doctrines for future presidents. A solid contribution.

- President American Foreign Policy Council.

"As I told you the night of the meeting and the next morning, your presentation was excellent. You did a masterful job of squeezing more than two hours of a normal program into 44 minutes! I was approached by several members (liberal and conservative) who were impressed. Your ability to stay balanced, factual and avoid the traps a few of our members and guests tried to set, is commendable. Seems in today's world it is important to cubby hole everybody as either conservative or liberal. Then the personal attacks start, all the while ignoring all the elements needed for intelligent discussions. The students at Ripon are lucky to have a professor with real life experiences and the gift to be a memorable teacher. I only remember 6 teachers in my educational life that were excellent."

- THE INDIANAPOLIS COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN RELATIONS Affiliated with the American Committees on Foreign Relations.

