

Gary Kunath is one of the most highly sought after speakers today in the field of sales, value creation, creating the customer experience and leadership. Most recently, he has published a book entitled Life...Don't Miss it; which shares with people of all ages the secrets to achieving maximum joy and contentment in life and how to live your life to the fullest. As a result of the success of his book, Gary has been speaking extensively on this topic. How companies can positively impact their employees lives OUTSIDE of the office walls to elevate their natural productivity and company loyalty. It is no longer about work/life balance, it is about work/life fulfillment and loving your whole life. His highly energetic and authentic delivery style and his use of humor have made him one of the hottest speakers today.

Gary founded the Summit Group, recognized by Selling Power magazine as one of the top sales training companies in the world. Regarded as a thought leader in the area of value creation, his value creation approach received "Innovative Practice of the Year Award" by 3M worldwide. He was named Businessman of the Year for the United States and was formally recognized for this achievement at a dinner hosted by the President of the United States.

An accomplished and respected business executive and entrepreneur, Gary has lectured in the Executive Education and MBA Programs of Duke University's Fuqua School of Business, Miami University's Farmer Business School, Emory University Business School, Clemson University, Univ. of Georgia and at Cornell University's Johnson Graduate School of Management. He also served on faculties of the executive development programs of MARRIOTT, P&G, Ritz Carlton and Lockheed.
