

Brian Billick Speaker Profile:

An expert motivator, NFL coach and strategist, for more than 30 years Brian Billick has demonstrated an exceptional ability to take individual players to their highest potential, while keeping his teams unified and focused.

From 1999-2007, Billick served as the head coach of the Baltimore Ravens, a new franchise with some of the youngest players in NFL history. In his first year as head coach, Billick guided the Ravens to their first non-losing season (8-8). In 2000, he led the Ravens to a decisive 34-7 Super Bowl XXXV victory over the New York Giants. Currently an analyst for FOX TV Sports and a contributor to the NFL Network, Billick shares his methods for bringing teams together to focus on achieving common goals. Motivational speaker and author of several books including More Than A Game: The Glorious Present and Uncertain Future of the NFL, which in part looks at ongoing labor issues in professional football, Billick's engaging presentations challenge us all to strive for a "we" environment that holds everyone on a team accountable in the pursuit of victory.
