

Formerly one of Franklin Covey Company's highest rated trainers, Tom Blaisse brings more than 25 years of knowledge and experience from a variety of industries including financial, manufacturing, technology, hospitality, pharmaceutical, health care and government. Some of Tom's clients include ExxonMobil, General Electric, Morgan Stanley, US Airways, Target Stores, BMW, US Navy, Pfizer, Willis Insurance, Alcoa, Deloitte and the Touche, and the American Red Cross.

Blessed with a natural gift for inspiring and connecting with people, Tom's audience members leave his presentations feeling energized, renewed, and committed to "turning on their own lights so they can shine a little brighter."

Tom's engaging, humorous, energetic presentation style creates a fun, upbeat learning environment that helps people discover their own areas for professional improvement and personal change. Attendees leave Tom's events empowered to implement new ideas and behaviors that will lead them to greater results.

Tom is passionate about his message and his mission. With the soul of a teacher, the heart of a counselor, and the presentation style of an actor, Tom believes in what he says; practices what he preaches, and cares deeply about those whose lives he touches. With a Bachelor's Degree in Theatre and Speech Communications from De Sales University in Allentown, PA, Tom taught high school English, Speech and Drama while completing his Masters Degree in Counseling Psychology from Rider University in Trenton, NJ. He then began his consulting career with Asset Center /Wilson Learning of Philadelphia where he developed and delivered workshops in Leadership; Behavioral Styles and Consultative...

Testimonials

“ Our clients have begun to work on changing their associates' 'erroneous belief systems', so they can direct them to more positive results. ”

- Chris Frederick, Sr. President, Auto Training Institute, Savage, MD.

“ Your vast experience has provided a knowledge base that is transferrable to our work situations. Participants are able to immediately transfer knowledge to their workplace and implement solutions you have provided. ”

- Eleanor Sanford, Vice President, Leadership & Organizational Consulting, Bank America
Boston, MA.

Tom Blaisse

Speech Topics

- Time Management
- Stress Management
- Management
- Leadership
- Coaching / Mentoring
- Change

