

Elizabeth McCormick coaches entrepreneurs on how to improve their marketing reach, social media brand, and sales strategies. The success with her follow-up systems has been proven within her Longaberger® Direct Sales business; Elizabeth has experienced double-digit growth in sales, sponsoring and team development.

In 2010, Elizabeth was awarded the prestigious “Spirit of Longaberger” Award given to one sales consultant in the nation for her willingness to share, care and inspire others. She also earned the “Leadership Distinction 2010” Award for the highest performing team in her team size category. Elizabeth has facilitated training at 9 National Conventions including three times as a main stage arena speaker.

Elizabeth McCormick has travelled the country as a inspirational speaker, relating the challenges faced as a female BlackHawk Helicopter pilot and Warrant Officer for the United States Army to everyday obstacles that can be overcome.
