

Brad Meltzer is the #1 New York Times bestselling author of The Inner Circle, and well as seven other bestsellers. His first non-fiction book, Heroes For My Son - a collection of heroes throughout history, from Jim Henson, to Rosa Parks, to Thomas Jefferson - also rose quickly up the New York Times inspirational bestseller list. He is also the host of the hit History Channel series, Brad Meltzer's Decoded—and is the number one selling author of the critically acclaimed comic books, Identity Crisis and Justice League of America, for which he won the prestigious Eisner Award. He is the first author to ever reach the #1 spot on both the New York Times and the Diamond comic book bestseller lists simultaneously.

Brad Meltzer is a graduate of the University of Michigan and Columbia Law School. His books have spent over eleven months on the bestseller lists, and have been translated into over 25 languages. Meltzer has played himself as an extra in Woody Allen's Celebrity and earned credit from Columbia Law School for writing his first book, which became The Tenth Justice. Before all of that, he got 24 rejection letters for his true first novel, which still sits on his shelf, published by Kinko's. *In partnership with WME Speakers

Testimonials

“OUTSTANDING presentation was the unanimous result for Brad Meltzer’s presentation on the Guest surveys we received at the completion of our Executive Forum last week. There was not one rating below this - that’s a first in the 6 years I have been working on this event.” ”

- QualCare Healthcare.

“Everything went great! Brad was amazing and he hit it right out of the park. He was the best start to our conference and I am so pleased that we had the opportunity to work with him.” ”
