

Amy Dee is recognized by audiences across the country as a master storyteller and brilliant comedian. She combines her background in stand-up comedy and theatre with her RN degree and experience as a successful business owner to deliver hilarious stories and valuable content on the brain and behavior. Her message and music rise above the boundaries of gender, age, and occupation. Amy's hilarious stories coupled with her phenomenal content propels audiences to live, act, and work better. Her authentic spirit and down to earth approach have made her one of the most sought-after speakers throughout the United States. She is truly one of the best speakers in the country at combining message and humor. Amy's background is as diverse as her audiences. She once ran a non-profit where she managed five hundred volunteers and organized multiple fundraisers that culminated in an eight-hour telethon. Amy lived in Norway from 1994-2003, and while learning to speak, read and write in Norwegian, she started a photo calendar business in her home. Her company grew to become Xerox's largest customer in Scandinavia. Amy returned to college at age forty-three to obtain her RN degree. She was nominated for Nurse of the Year six times during her nine years as a Psychiatric RN. Amy has been a monthly guest expert on NBC affiliate ND Today. She has written four books and numerous song parodies.

Testimonials

▢ Amy was our featured speaker at our Avera No Boys Allowed Women's Health Expo. We could not have made a better choice! She was both inspirational and hilarious. She had the entire audience, ages 18-75, crying with laughter. We had so many requests to bring her back again! She was very professional and a pleasure to work with.▢

▢ Amy Dee received a standing ovation for her opening keynote at the Women's Health Conference in Fargo, ND. Amy took the time to understand what we were looking for and the result was a hilarious and poignant message about our everyday choices. It set the exact tone for the day. She was easy to work with, adaptable, and personable with the staff, committee, and most importantly the attendees. Amy has amazing energy, a great sense of humor and has a relevant and inspirational message to share.▢
