

Larry Bailin is one of the top rated Internet marketing speakers in the country. Already recognized as one of the best professional keynote speakers in the nation by SpeakerWiki, you'll earn a lifetime of knowledge about promoting your business and using the Internet as a marketing tool by booking Larry as your sales and marketing speaker.

Larry's speaking topics touch on some of the hottest marketing issues that businesses of all sizes are struggling with. Social media, social networking, search engine marketing, customer behavior, Google, blogging, mobile marketing, and viral video just to name a few!

Not only does Larry strive to present the most up-to-date and useful knowledge about Internet marketing, but as a professional business speaker he makes it a point to keep the audience awake while he's at it. Let's face it, nobody likes a boring lecture. Larry's speaking style is a lively, engaging, and, most importantly, informative experience that will provide any audience with the tools and understanding they need to use the Internet as a successful marketing tool.

Not sure if Larry's the right speaker for your event? Check out the who hires Larry page to get a better idea of the wide and varied array of businesses Larry has been asked to present to as a professional business speaker.

To book Larry Bailin call Executive Speakers Bureau at 901-754-9404.

Larry Bailin

Speech Topics

- Technology
- Social Media
- Marketing

Testimonials

“ Larry's a great speaker because he has a way of simplifying the complex process of reaching people through the web. Today's consumer uses the internet in their research, decision making, & purchasing. My dilemma as a business person is that I understand the importance of implementing the process, but don't know how to execute it. Larry's presentation served as a catalyst to begin taking advantage of the opportunities the web offers to reach new customers.

”

- Structured Cable of VA .

“ Larry was able to present the basics on digital media in an entertaining, engaging, and informative format. Our attendees enjoyed Larry's use of real corporate examples to reinforce his expert advice both on which strategies work and which ones to avoid. In addition to sharing smart tricks of the trade to ensure that digital media and technology is used efficiently, he made it comprehensive enough that everyone walked away with a valuable insight. ”

- YMCA.