

Steve Shallenberger is recognized as a global leading authority on organizational success and time management. He is widely known for his fun, energetic, and highly impactful keynotes and seminars.

Based on the National Bestselling book Becoming Your Best: The 12 principles of Highly Successful Leaders - which includes 40 years of research from peak performing companies - Steve will show your participants how to leverage the 12 principles that propel teams and organizations to the top!

Over the past 30 years, Steve has spoken on every continent and done team building and corporate training events with many Fortune 500 companies. Steve graduated from Brigham Young University and later attended Harvard business school.

He has successfully started three different businesses in three separate industries. He doesn't just talk the talk, he has walked the walk. He sat on Stephen Covey's Board of Directors for many years. He is also responsible for designing the original Covey organizer that led to millions in sales for Covey Leadership Center.

Steve has led many businesses and currently sits on the board of directors for several renowned organizations. He knows how to succeed and how to help others succeed.

Steve's keynotes and seminars are focused on helping teams and leaders bring out their very best in every area of their life. He will share new, cutting-edge tools and processes that can have an immediate impact on behavioral change, revenue, net profit, employee turnover, customer retention, and morale.

Steve has been married for 40 years and has six beautiful children. He is passionate about his family and helping others achieve their fullest potential. To book Steve Shallenberger call Ex...

Testimonials

"The Becoming Your Best seminar was the most exciting seminar I've ever attended in my life! Thank you for developing this marvelous seminar and book which is a life changer!"

- DIRECTOR OF SALES, P.J. LHULLIER, PHILIPPINES.

"I can say with confidence that the principles taught in Becoming Your Best will provide you a fool proof roadmap on how to excel in life. Whether you're interested in becoming the best coach, athlete, spouse, parent or the best in your career, you need look no further than applying what is taught in Becoming Your Best. The world, as well as those you love deserve your best."

- FOUNDER, MONAVIE.

Steve Shallenberger

Speech Topics

- Time Management
- Organizational Skills
- Management
- Leadership
- Communication Skills
- Business Motivational

