

Michael Weber delivers astonishing entertainment for thinking audiences. His original presentations of the impossible excite the intellect and imagination of every audience member. Imagine meeting face-to-face with someone who has the ability to determine your innermost thoughts. Concentrate on a word, an idea, any number or image, and Michael Weber is able to entertainingly capture that thought with almost scientific precision.

With style, wit, charm and absolute discretion, Michael Weber utilizes these thoughts to create entertaining and mind-shattering results. He has unfailingly demonstrated this unique ability with hundreds of thousands of people around the world. The themes of communication, information and innovation resonate throughout every performance. His presentations reach every member of the audience from a one-on-one demonstration for the President of the United States to Amphitheater shows for over 7,500 people.

Michael Weber also happens to be a licensed attorney in the State of California, with an educational background that includes bachelor's, master's and doctorate degrees. With his diverse experiences and wide-ranging fields of interest he is comfortable and conversant with audiences and individuals on most any level. For more than two decades Michael Weber has been creating and performing his own remarkable style of entertainment. He has demonstrated his amazing abilities throughout the United States, Western Europe, South America and the Far East. He was a featured entertainer at the Cannes Film Center, The Paris Academie, and the United States Embassy for the new U.S. Ambassador to France. Michael Weber has also performed throughout Thailand, Japan, Spain, England, Finland, Switzerland, Sweden, Arge...

Michael Weber

Speech Topics

- Teambuilding
- Peak Performance
- Entertainment
- Creativity

