

Charles P. Garcia, one of the nation's top entrepreneurs, a best selling author, and leading Latino motivational speaker, got to where he is today by refusing to take a backseat. He took risks. He was determined. He followed his passion. And he motivates his audiences to do the same.

For Garcia, success in life means finding your passion and following it. Using motivational tools and valuable takeaways presented with an energetic style, he encourages his audiences to look within themselves to discover their life's passion. Doing so, he teaches, will help them improve themselves, their client and personal relationships, and their work and home lives.

His lessons stay with audiences long after they've left. Bold, provocative, and inspiring, Garcia's message serves as a catalyst to help people dream big, set written goals, and take action.

Speaking on a wide variety of topics from leadership to diversity to parenting to entrepreneurship, Garcia appeals to many different groups. To ensure he provides the right, perfectly customized message, he consults with his clients to understand the goals of the speaking event and to assess the demographic and psychographic elements of the audience.

A true speaking sensation, Garcia enlightens, empowers, and energizes every audience, every time.

Testimonials

□ Thank you for your generosity in sharing your insights and views as a Power Breakfast speaker at the 2003 National Minority Supplier Development Council Conference. Knowing of your hectic schedule and many other commitments, I appreciate your making the time and effort to participate. The positive feedback has been gratifying and our participants left enthused about NMSDC and about minority business development. □

□ On behalf of ING, I have engaged Charles Garcia as a keynote speaker at a number of conventions that our company has sponsored. Specifically, Charles was the keynote speaker for the National Association of Bilingual Education, the National PTA Convention, and next year will keynote the American Association of School Administrators. Charles' message is too important and too valuable not to share. Charles is a successful Hispanic in the financial world with a mission and a message of improving lives, and his bestseller, A Message from Garcia, is an uplifting and moving book that redefines the concept of success and how to achieve it. □
