

Tim Dixon is on a mission to give people permission to play a bigger game in life. With a masters degree in Sports Psychology and 13 years of coaching experience, Tim is sought out by athletes and businesses at all levels. Recognized for his presence and impact from the stage, Tim has been a featured speaker at Coaches Conventions, Baseball Camps, and several Business Events around the Country. Although the majority of Tim's time is spent in the athletic arena, you can also find him coaching in a classroom or workshop. He was a Squadron Professional Ethics Advisor (SPEA) and Certified Character Coach with the United States Air Force Academy from 2010-2014. Tim taught honor lessons to 125 cadets each year as well as working one-on-one with future officers on building character and overcoming obstacles in everyday life. Tim's mental training workshops are not for those who seek comfort as he challenges the daily choices and forces you to push through current expectations.

A two time Best Selling Author, Tim encourages you to play a bigger game in whatever arena that is. Your relationship with practice, attention to details and the art of preparation are just a few topics Tim speaks about. His high energy and at times "in your face" approach leave his audiences eager to take action. Tim's list of clients include professional golfers, high school basketball players, corporate America, University of Oregon, Cal State Fullerton, Cal State Northridge and many more. His passion for helping others achieve greatness is second to none.

Testimonials

☐ "Tim Dixon is one of the most passionate and insightful people I know. He is a natural teacher and born leader who has a unique ability to not only connect with people on a genuine level, but helps people understand how much potential they truly have. This is the true mark of a great teacher – and Tim does this through his incredible presence, preparation and ability to convey his message in a clear and inspiring way. "

☐ "Tim Dixon was the perfect speaker for our Dean's External Advisory Board and Alumni dinner. He delivered our message of "a need for change" in higher education using personal testimony and skillfully worked in the information we provided him. He brought the crowd to tears and roaring laughter. I highly recommend Tim for reenergizing your students, alumni and/or faculty. He knows how to get your message delivered!"
