

After graduating with honors in business management economics and psychology from the University of California Santa Cruz, Jacob Morgan was excited to join the corporate world. At his first job he was told that he'd be traveling the country, meeting with executives and entrepreneurs, and doing all sorts of exciting work. A few months in, he was stuck doing data entry, cold calling, and PowerPoint presentations. One day the CEO came out of his nice corner office, handed Jacob a $10 bill and said, "I'm late for a meeting, go grab me a cup of coffee, and get something for yourself as well." That was the last corporate job he ever had.

Today, Jacob Morgan is a trained futurist and one of the world's leading authorities on the future of work, employee experience, and leadership. He speaks in front of tens of thousands of people each year and his content is seen over a million times a year. Jacob is the best-selling author of three books: The Employee Experience Advantage (2017), The Future of Work (2014), The Collaborative Organization (2012), and his forthcoming book on the future of leadership will be released towards the end of 2019. He speaks at over 50 conferences a year including TED Academy which is one of the largest TED events in the world. His topics range from AI and automation, management and leadership, the future of work, the 4th industrial revolution, employee experience, the internet of things, and many others. In addition, Jacob provides advisory and thought leadership services to various organizations around the world.
