

Welcome to a Real Reality Show. Scott Long tells his story of growing up in the Cornstalk Ghetto of Iowa and how making people laugh was the best therapy for an extremely dysfunctional childhood. Marriage, children, and stories of Midwest life are the focus of his hilarious show!

After college Scott moved to Chicago, but for the past 2 decades the state of Indiana has been his home. Scott's Dad was born in Detroit, his Mom lives in Oklahoma, and his Grandparents are from Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska, and Kentucky. Is it any wonder he's considered the Best Comedian at connecting with Middle of the Country audiences? Scott proves you can perform at the nation's top comedy clubs and write for Network TV shows-all while being based in the Midwest.

Scott has been seen on NBC, FOX, ESPN, and the Bob and Tom Show. For the past 13 years he's written the comedy sketches for the amazingly talented Frank Caliendo at the NFL on FOX and ESPN Countdown pregame shows. Scott has also written a book of comedic essays entitled Dysfunctional Thoughts of a 21st Century Man, plus released 2 comedy CD's and 2 comedy DVD's.

No two Scott Long performances are ever the same, as depending on the audience he can bring completely different shows. The top online corporate comedy website, Gigmasters, voted him their 2014 and 2015 Standup Comedian of the Year.

“Scott is truly a Class Act!!”

“DO NOT BOOK SCOTT.....if you hate laughing so hard your stomach hurts! Scott was hilarious! Some of our State Farm events can be a bit stuffy, Scott broke through all of that and had everyone rolling. His improvisation and quick wit was very impressive. So too was the fact that he tailored a lot of his material to our industry. Honestly, I want to host another event just so I can book Scott again.”
