

Mark Eaton is a 7'4" NBA All Star and team building expert. Mark teaches organizations how to employ the principles and coaching techniques he mastered in his twelve year basketball career. The Four Commitments of a Winning Team enables industry leaders, teams and individuals to outsmart, outlast and outperform their competition and achieve record breaking success. Mark shares his incredible journey of how he went from a 21 year old auto mechanic with no future in basketball to a record breaking NBA player and All Star! Meeting planners and clients alike have touted Mark as the "best speaker they have ever had" and appreciate the fact that his message has immediate impact and actionable takeaways. Mark's message is ideal for those looking to strengthen and motivate their team, increase commitment between co-workers, and create an environment of safety and trust.
