

David Greenberg's fast-paced, fun, and results-driven programs continue to receive rave reviews from companies like AT&T, BellSouth, IBM, and the U.S. Department of Education. Because of his track record for exceeding client's expectations, more than 90% of David's clients have him back again and again. Not many speakers can say that!

At age 11, David Greenberg started his career as a door-to-door salesperson, selling burglar alarm-warning stickers to people who could not afford a real system. At age 16, he became known as "The Peep-Hole Boy" of Ft. Lauderdale. When he knocked on your door and you asked, "Who is it?" David replied, "If you had a peep-hole, you would know!" For $10 David would drill a hole in your door and your problems were solved.

After graduating second in his class at the University of Florida (the person who graduated first was a nerd!), David left his drill behind and spent five years as a BellSouth manager. He's also been an IBM employee, an Oglethorpe and Kennesaw University communication instructor in Atlanta, and even a stand-up comedian. He's broken his foot falling off a tightrope, and he's jumped from an air-plane, where he forgot to pull the ripcord.

Today, David stays on the ground speaking to organizations about stretching comfort zones and moving beyond current limitations to achieve personal and professional excellence. In 1988, David founded Simply Speaking, Inc., an Atlanta-based company that has helped more than 100,000 people worldwide to be more effective communicators. David is the author of three books, including Thank God It's Monday! Designing a Life You Love Beyond the Weekend, Simply Speaking! The No-Sweat Way to Prepare and Deliver Presentations, and The Little Book of BIG...

Testimonials

What I always look for are take-aways -- things that stick with me that I can use. I got a number of take-always from David that were most important for my future business.

- VP, Prudential Real Estate.

David was the right tonic to end our conference after a long and wearing two and a half days. He did his homework about our company and our theme and handled this most difficult slot in a manner that far exceeded our expectations. He rated higher than any other speaker, and we had some good ones!

- Swiss Hotel Management, USA.
