

Dr. Gustavo Grodnitzky, better known as Dr. Gustavo, is an organizational consultant and clinical psychologist. He is currently the President of Gustavo Grodnitzky, PLLC, an organizational consulting firm in the Denver, Colorado, area. Dr. Gustavo specializes in leadership development, strategic and tactical planning, and creating change in organizational culture.

Over the past 15 years, Dr. Gustavo has provided more than 1000 corporate and public presentations in the areas of leadership development, strategic and tactical planning, and creating change in organizational culture. He is currently in particular demand for his expertise in the areas of integrating a multigenerational workforce and cultivating cultures of success. He has worked extensively with a broad range of organizations, including: Mercedes-Benz, Eli Lilly, N.A.S.A., Starbucks, BB&T, International Paper, and Blue Cross Blue Shield.

Dr. Gustavo has presented at a variety of national and international professional conferences and has written several manuscripts for publication. His most recent publication is a review of a text regarding Emotional Intelligence in the workplace. His upcoming book, Culture Trumps Everything was published in 2014 by Blooming Twig Books, New York.

Dr. Gustavo holds a Ph.D. in Clinical and School Psychology from Hofstra University in New York. He is fluent in both English and Spanish, having been born in Buenos Aires, Argentina and raised in New York.

Gustavo Grodnitzky

Speech Topics

- ☐ Leadership
- ☐ Keynote
- ☐ Communication Skills
- ☐ Change
- ☐ Business Speakers
- ☐ Business Culture

