

Kim Becking, J.D. is on a mission to empower leaders, teams, and organizations to build a Momentum Mindset® to be more adaptable, resilient, and ready for what's next in this rapidly changing world. As a leading thought leader on thriving in the midst of change, you might have seen her on Good Morning America or read about her in Harvard Business Review, People magazine, or the New York Times. She is an engaging, high-energy, and impactful international keynote speaker, human behavior expert, best-selling author, consultant, cancer thriver, recovering attorney, and a proud Thin Mint girl scout addict. Her strategic insights and practical solutions to adapting to change and boosting resilience have been utilized by hundreds of happy clients - including Fortune 100 companies, national and statewide associations, healthcare organizations, governmental entities, and non-profit organizations.

Kim provides practical tools and strategies for leaders and teams to effectively master change, be more adaptable, strengthen their resilience muscle and build MOMENTUM for what's next. After hearing Kim, audiences leave ready to take her relatable lessons and practical solutions and put them into immediate action.

Testimonials

"Kim is the complete package. She was engaged from the moment we booked her, working to make sure she customized her content to connect with our customers. She was so easy to work with and was engaged the entire weekend with our event, not just during her presentation. She made extra effort to get to know our customers. Her presentation on how to ride the highs and lows of life was inspiring, funny and encouraging. We all left with actionable things that we can implement immediately to create momentum in our lives. Her message is universal and can resonate with anyone who is lucky enough to hear her."

- Director of Marketing Kaweah Delta Health Care District.

"You ABSOLUTELY knocked it out of the park! I have heard nothing but positive things from the rest of my Roche teammates and from our customers about the event. Your message resonated so well with our audience. Everything from the planning to the actual event to after the event - we couldn't have asked for a better partner!"

- Marketing Manager Roche Diagnostics.
