Testimonials

“Mark, you were fabulous and I don't say those words often. What was especially clear to me and others is that you were there for your audience, and your speech and message were not about you. I've watched you over the years, and you are a journeyman in our profession, and a great example of what can happen when you stay true to your message and keep going. Congratulations on a job well-done!”

- Bob Pike, CSP, CPAE.

“Your keynote on the DNA of business was both inspiring and challenging and moved many of us to think of our businesses with new simplicity and clarity. While I was impressed with your keynote, I think your breakout was one of the highlights of the conference. You have a real gift in translating your years of experience into bite sized nuggets that can be easily learned and immediately applied. What impressed me the most about you was your quiet confidence and strong presence that makes your material instantly credible and easy to digest.”
