

As a self-professed corporate anarchist, Marco has been a groundbreaking pioneer in the field of inventive global branding and stellar marketing. He is renowned as a compelling and gifted speaker, an ingenious thinker, an inspired author and a revolutionary innovator. Marco's intense passion and infectious spirit make him a unique driving force.

He founded Marco Polo Explorers, and for over 15 years created a lengthy list of remarkably successful new products for some of the largest and smartest companies in the world. Some of his recent achievements include exhilarating and cutting edge solutions for Pizza Hut, Absolut and Kotex.

Marco has influenced tens of thousands of people through his speeches and books. In his first book, Who Are You When Nobody's Looking?, Marco explores the power of strategic life invention. His second book, Think Naked: Childlike Brilliance in the Rough Adult World, he helps readers to reawaken and reconnect with the creative genius of their internal four year old selves. In The Lion's Way, Marco's newest work, he introduces life-changing principles in the context of a thrilling adventure. This provocative novel explores empathy as the ultimate problem-solving tool.
