

Dave Coulier's (pronounced Cool-Yay) story is a refreshing one for Hollywood - nice guys can finish first. As an actor/ comedian /voice-over artist, his many talents are much in demand. From standup comedy on The Tonight Show with Johnny Carson and Jay Leno, to his starring role on the hit television series, Full House, Dave has covered the spectrum of family entertainment.

Dave is perhaps best known for his work on the long-running hit ABC television series, Full House, which aired for eight seasons (1987-1995, with 192 shows produced) and can now be seen in worldwide syndication in over 100 countries, and airs domestically everyday on TNT, TBS and WGN. Dave followed this success by hosting his second prime-time hit series America's Funniest People, which ran on ABC for four seasons (1991-1994). Additionally, Dave handled the hosting chores for ABC's The World's Funniest Videos, and hosted his own series, Out of Control for Nickelodeon.

With his entire career rooted in family entertainment, it seemed to be a natural fit for Dave to form his own children's entertainment company. The result, F3 Entertainment, was founded in early 2001 and is already enjoying great success with its first, two-CD release, Weaver Beaver and Friends, which are available at Borders Books nationwide.

You may have just seen Dave as one of the judges on the new family reality show, My Life Is A Sitcom, on the ABC Family network. He will also star as the voices of Felix The Cat, The Professor and Rock Bottom in several upcoming Felix The Cat animated feature films for video release. Dave has also provided voices for Dexter's Laboratory on the Cartoon Network, as well as The Zeta Project for Warner Brothers.

Dave is now hosting a new TV series, Animal Kidding on t...

Dave Coulier

Speech Topics

- Motivation
- Inspiration
- Humor
- Celebrity