

Originally from Scotland, Robin Sieger studied science at the University of Glasgow before going on to fulfill a childhood ambition by becoming a successful comedian, appearing regularly on radio and having his own television show. In 1986, at the age of 29, he was diagnosed with cancer. In what is best described as a wake up call, he began to realize that success is not a matter of luck, but of design. Since then he has spent the last twenty years researching and continues to study the principles behind true success.

Robin set up his first company, with the sole aim of teaching people to develop themselves and reach their full potential. He firmly believes that organisational culture is a reflection of what people believe about themselves and the company they work for.

Robin Sieger is the author of the international best seller Natural Born Winners (Random House), which is sold in over 70 countries, translated into 12 languages, and also turned into a No 1 rated television series for Scottish Television. Robin's second book, You Can Change Your Life Any Time You Want, examines the impact of how we think on our success. His third book 42 Days to Wealth Health and Happiness, was published in January 2006 and had its first reprint after 10 days, and topped Amazon.com's best seller list.

As a speaker, he was the first to be awarded the United Kingdom's highest speaking honor when he was made a Fellow of the Professional Speaker's Association. In 2006 he was the first European speaker ever to be invited to speak on the main platform at the National Speakers Association's Convention - a first for a European in the Convention's 25-year history.

He is passionate about enabling people to create success by connecting to their p...
