

CHRIS DYER

RECOGNIZED COMPANY CULTURE AND REMOTE WORK EXPERT
RANKED #1 LEADERSHIP SPEAKER ON CULTURE

Chris Dyer is a recognized company culture and remote work expert. As a former CEO managing thousands of people, his companies consistently were named a best place to work. They have also been named a fastest growing company by Inc Magazine 5 times. Chris routinely consults and speaks, and Inc Magazine ranked him as the #1 Leadership Speaker on Culture. He has two bestselling books The Power of Company Culture and Remote Work, and has been named #5 on the Leadership Power List, a Top 50 Voice in Leadership, a Top 40 Change Management Guru, a Top 50 Global Thought Leader, and a Top 50 leadership podcast, Top 50 HR Leaders Shaping the Future of Work, and a Top 101 Global Employee Engagement & Experience Influencers by Inspiring Workplaces and Work Buzz, just this year.

As a keynote speaker, his goal is to inspire audiences with a straightforward delivery, insightful candor, and engaging humor. His talks leave audiences permanently transformed, offering innovative perspectives on leadership to improve company culture and empower organizations to discover new successes. Countless companies have unlocked productivity, performance, and profits by implementing his 7 Pillar Strategy.

CHARLENE WHEELESS

BIO CONT'D

An accomplished author, Charlene also stresses how you must reclaim your life with purpose and passion. Her book, You Are Enough! Reclaiming Your Career and Your Life with Purpose, Passion, and Unapologetic Authenticity has quickly become a blueprint for a healthier approach to reaching your goals.

Charlene continues to emerge as an influential professional on equity and justice and has appeared in scholarly and media outlets including, The Dialogue Project, Forbes, Business Insider and Chief Executive. In 2021 she was hand-selected to be a member of Marshall Goldsmith's prestigious 100 Coaches, a collection of top executive coaches and leadership thinkers dedicated to paying it forward. Charlene has also been awarded many accolades throughout her career including two Telly awards and more than 50 additional communications and leadership excellence awards. PR Week named her to their Global Power Book for most influential professionals in PR for five consecutive years while The Network Journal named her among the 25 Most Influential Black Women in Business.

Charlene is equally committed to her community, serving as the immediate past chairman of the HCA Virginia-Reston Hospital. Other board positions include the Institute for Public Relations, the Page Center, the Diversity Action Alliance, and The Black Experience, an effort to amplify the voices of leaders in the Black Community.

Charlene is a certified leadership coach and is a member of the National Speakers Association, in addition to other professional associations. She holds a BA in Journalism/PR, an MA in Public Communications, and an MBA with an emphasis in Marketing.