

Known as the “World’s Cleanest Comedian and Speaker,” Kent Rader helps people and associations learn and experience how laughter matters in reducing stress and building quality organizations. Kent graduated from William Jewell College in Liberty, Missouri with a B.S. in Accounting. He survived five years in public accounting and twelve years as C.F.O. and C.E.O. of hospitals before becoming a professional speaker in 1997. Kent has authored the stress reduction book titled Let It Go, Just Let It Go, which is featured in 450 Country Inn and Suites Hotel’s Read It and Return program. Kent co-stars with Jan McInnis in the Baby Boomer Comedy Show, Clean Comedy for People Born Before Seat Belts, Safety Helmets, and Facebook and has been heard on NPR’s Talk of the Nation, Sirius Satellite radio, and Comcast’s comedy show, Who’s Laughing Now. He is also the winner of the Branson Comedy Festival.

Testimonials

“You are a wonderful reminder that our human nature provides unlimited opportunities to laugh, share, and defuse the stresses of our lives in a way that is neither offensive nor exclusionary.”

- Karen Craven, participant, The Missouri APSE conference.

“Kent, You were the hit of the conference. I have never had so much, and consistent, positive feedback about one individual speaker. Thank you so much for your message and for helping us set the bar high. Now I have to figure out how to top it next year. You were also a delight to work with. So many times the speakers are prima donnas with lots of ridiculous demands, especially since I am paying them. Thanks for everything.”

- Joe Ostrander, Community Action Association of Pennsylvania, Harrisburg, PA .
